

CANADIAN REVENUE NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER - 1974 # 43

With this issue of the Newsletter, you will find the last pages of my study on the Provincial Vacation Stamps. I believe that there is at least one issue of these that I do not have. However, I expect to secure Xerox copies of this issue and at time I will send out a page on this. Again we have Bob Withosky to thank for all the Xeroxing.

I don't seem to have much to report this month and again I seem to be a few days late. However I do have an excuse. I had to take a trip to Toronto where I identified 92 covers which were stolen from my house when I had the robbery Nov. 12, 1972. I don't know whether my identifying these items will do any good as far as recovering them. At present it is a matter between the Insurance Company's lawyer and the Toronto police. They (the police) seem to think that the present holder of these covers should be re-imbursed the price he paid. It gets quite confusing and I suppose presents quite a legal problem, altho, I thought a purchaser of stolen goods was held responsible. Oh well! time will tell. It will certainly make a very interesting story. The investigation all started when I saw one cover stolen from me illustrated in an Auction catalog.

Our member Harry Clampett Jr, reports that the Collectors Club of New York has a meeting scheduled in April for Canadian Revenues, I hope to report the actual date in next months Newsletter. Perhaps some of our members would like to attend or better yet to participate.
