The Revenue meeting at InterPhil was a huge success. The meeting started at 9:30 A.M. Coffee, tea and munchkins were on tap. The register shows 41 people signed in. Lear, Richardson, LaFrance and Rockett gave talks and many of the great rarities of Canadian Revenues were shown. It was a great meeting many of the regulars and especially nice meeting Revenuers I had never met before.

The BNA Lounge at InterPhil was a very popular resting place for the many BNA members who attended the show.

September 16 to 18 is the Annual BNA Convention at San Francisco.

See center fold in the March-April TOPICS.

Our member King Parker Jr. of the San Francisco area writes "We are planning a unique program for the membership with plenty of Hospitality and a fabulous dinner".

So far, this is the extent of any information I have on the convention. Hilda and I plan on attending. We have arranged a tour which arrives in San Francisco Sept. 16. We will ^{be} staying at the "St. Francis". Naturally, we shall have the Annual Revenue Group Meeting, I hope to see many of you there.

Our member Edward Zaluski exhibited 60 pages of Canadian Law Stamps at ORAPEX. He won the following awards, ORAPEX "Gold Ribbon" (top local award) Royal Philatelic Society Silver Medal, Best of the "Miscellaneous Class" trophy, and the most popular exhibit in the show. (by vote) Congratulations Edward.
