First, the Newsletter wishes to thank those members who sent in donations. We received about 20 donations, this was great, but I had hoped for about 50 more.

The Revenue Group made two awards for Revenue Exhibits at the Annual BNAPS Convention and exhibition at McAllen. Certificates were sent to Joe Shelton and John Siverts for their excellent exhibits.

These were outstanding Revenue Exhibits. There^{were} items in each exhibits which would look very splendid in my collection.

I haven't seen the latest issue of Topics, but I hear tell there are a great number of BNAPS listed as being dropped for non-payment of 1980 dues. I hope none of us are so listed.

However, if you are listed please get in your 1980 dues and while you are at it, pay up for 1981. Thank you.

HELP IS NEEDED - Several of us are trying to gather a complete file of the News letters and Pulletins published the present Revenue Group and also the original Canadian Revenue Society. So far we have been fairly successful. We need #1 to #138 of the CRS Pulletins. We will then have a complete file for the Revenue Group and also the Canadian Postal Museum.

Watermarks

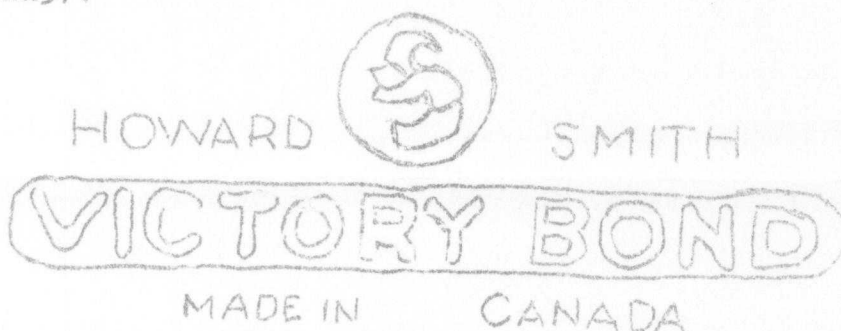

On NB Tobacco and PEI Health Tax Tickets

by Ed Zaluski

By studying a number of watermarked panes, one watermark for the PEI Health Tax Tickets and two watermarks for the NB Tobacco Tax Tickets have been reconstructed in their full size, as shown below. These three are the only ones I am aware of. If other collectors have further information, please write (8 Toronto Drive, Chatham, N. B., Canada E1N 2A3).

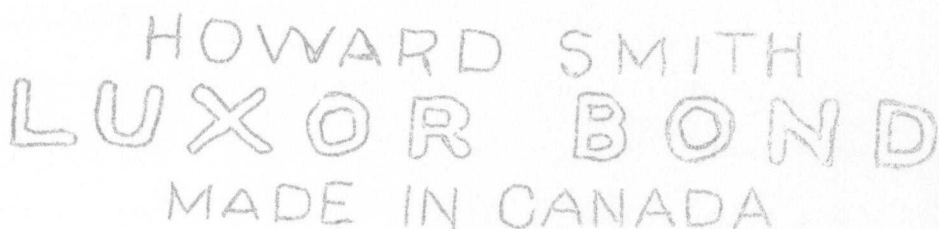

1. PEI Health Tax:

Watermark runs vertically across the stamps.

2. N. B. Tobacco Tax

- A. First issue of 28 Sep 1940. Watermark runs horizontally Parallel to the printed words on stamp.

- B. Second issue of 3 Dec 1940 and third issue of 15 Feb 1941. watermark runs vertically across the stamps.
