An Editorial Comment:

The cupboard is bare, I have no material of worth to publish in this edition of The Annex and I am not in the mood to write several pages all by myself.

I was unable, for several reasons, to go to Ottawa for the Convention and have had no reports from anyone since that event closed. There have been no comments whatever on the book and, at the moment, I do not even know who picked up their copies at the show, and who did not. During the next week ~~or~~ I will be getting together with Bill Pawluk to straighten that out and will be seeing to it that orders received by me are filled.

There would be no useful purpose served by going into any of the reasons for the action I have taken, as indicated on the previous page. It is done, and I want no further discussion on the matter.

Since the next edition will be the last Annex under my co-editorship I would like to make it a noteworthy one. Now is the time for you to submit your article on Squared Circles.
