Acknowledgements

We have received assistance from numerous individuals in generating this new listing of the Alberta issues. In particular, we thank Mr. Fritz Angst of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Mr. Roger Beals of Hemming, Minnesota; Dr. Earle Covert of Raymond, Alberta; Mr. Erling van Dam of Bridgenorth, Ontario and Mr. Edward Zaluski of Ottawa, Ontario. Each was most kind in providing us with additional scans and information. We apologize for not using some of their suggestions. A few additional images used for the verification process were obtained from eBay listings and other philatelic websites. We thank Mrs. Leslie Rubec for proofreading the manuscript several times. Our thanks are also extended to the British North America Philatelic Society for releasing this document on the Society's website, recognizing it as an evolving document in progress.

Preface

The Alberta hunting licence stamps are revenue issues that comprise about 20% of all the Canadian revenue stamps ever produced. They are also among the most confusing to try to collect as much of the available information about them is not correct as currently published. The authors initiated this new look at the Alberta issues in 2011 to try our best to correct this situation. Thus, we are pleased to finally be able to set some of the record straight in this new document. However, we recognize that there will still be errors and things that can be improved or added. Such is the case with this Version 2 where minor corrections and significant additions are made. If your keen eyes see something that is not right, feel free to tell us. Please send a scan if that helps. We do want to hear from you.

This paper was also initiated to note the 2014 forthcoming 50th anniversary of the introduction of Alberta hunting permit stamps in 1964. Alberta was the first government to issue hunting, fishing or conservation revenue stamps of any Canadian jurisdiction. This was eventually emulated by nine other provinces and territories (British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and the Northwest Territories) and two federal departments (Fisheries and Oceans Canada and Environment Canada).

The information herein is correct (as we understand it) up to December 31, 2013. Additions and corrections may be added in further revisions.

Version 2 Editorial Notes

- Table 3 is revised with the addition of two additional stamps used in several years (Resident Goat for 1965 and 1967, and subdivision of Resident Whitetail Deer into two stamps, one used in both 1965 and 1967 and the second used in both 1966 and 1969).
- Table 4 has a large number of minor editorial corrections. Of note, however, is the switching of the stamp colours for the 1968 and 1969 Moose Area One stamps (AH60 and AH82/Van Dam AW74 and AW98). The colours of several stamps in Table 4 for the 1964 to 1969 period have now been identified and are added in this Version 2.
- The text and Table 8 related to Special Stampless Licence Cards for 1986 to 1997 have been significantly revised. Version 1 material here should be disregarded.
- Several additional documents have been added to Annex 1.

A New Listing of Alberta Hunting, Resource Development and WISE Foundation Revenue Stamps, and Stampless Licence, Authorization and Special Quota Licence Stamps and Cards 1964 to 1997

Introduction

Over the 1964 to 1997 period, Alberta issued many hunting licence stamps, Resource Development stamps from 1973 to 1997, and WISE Foundation stamps from 1994 to 1997. A catalogue listing of these stamps based on the “CARIS System” has been published by Zaluski (2011). A second Alberta listing, more familiar to most collectors of these stamps, is provided in van Dam (2009) with over 1340 hunting stamps identified. Most collectors and dealers use van Dam (2009) as their standard reference. In 2011, the authors believed the van Dam list was in need of significant revision to improve the basic data for these stamps, eliminate layout errors, correct descriptive errors, correct the fee value identified for the individual stamps, remove non-existent stamps and add new stamps unknown when that list was created. In 2011, we embarked on a study to allow the revisions that are now reported here.

Starting in 1964, hunting of a wide variety of wildlife in Alberta required stamps to verify licence fees were paid. These are examined in Rubec (2011) including both animals and birds, but no fish species. However, some of the Alberta fishing licences are examined in Zaluski (2011). The creation of validation documents for hunting sometimes got pretty complicated. For example, to hunt ducks in Alberta, hunters needed the Alberta Wildlife Certificate — comprising a sheet of paper, a card or a booklet — within which the hunter affixed a provincial Game Bird stamp. If hunting Pheasants, they also needed the provincial Pheasant stamp. From 1966 onward, the hunter also needed to acquire a federal Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permit for ducks, geese and swan hunting. Provincial Sage Grouse and Merriam’s Turkey stamps were also issued in some years.

We started by preparing detailed summary documents for each year from 1964 to 1997. Each includes more data than could be included in any simplified table of Alberta Hunting Stamps, as presented here. Images of about 70% of all known Alberta stamps and stampless licences and cards were collected for each year, as an original or colour scan. The stamps in these lists are presented alphabetically, recording licence wording from the top of each stamp to the bottom. In each case, the original van Dam (2009) “AW” catalogue number is provided if it exists, as well as our new “AH” catalogue number. Our intention is to periodically update this information as we receive new data.

The listing of eleven particular stamps in van Dam (2009) is very problematic. In the 1964 to 1969 period, we have concluded that several stamps were used in more than one year assuming unused stock carried over to the other years of use. We believe this because of our examination of the stamp sizes, perforations, ink colours, and designs. The 11 stamps involved thus were used over more than one hunting season, except in one case, without reprinting. But the van Dam (2009) catalogue listing assigns 26 numbers to these stamps. This is wrong. Each of these stamps can only be verified as to year of use by their presence on a dated Wildlife Certificate. We believe study of control numbers on verifiable, dated copies could separate these stamps by control numbers assignable to specific years. This assumption however may fail if the Province released stamps in a non-linear fashion over the years of use, which is also very possible. One stamp (Resident Special Antelope) was in fact reprinted creating what we have now named Type 1 and Type 2 based on visible design differences (including line lengths and lettering size). In later years, a few stamps as listed are wrong where several categories of residency were combined onto one stamp due to low demand for these particular stamps. Table 3 summarizes the 1964 to 1969 stamps in question.

One of our first concerns was to eliminate stamps that just do not exist. A significant number of the stamps listed from 1986 to 1997 in van Dam (2009) actually do not exist as a collectible stamp, being issued only as a stampless card. Other low-demand licence stamps have combinations of two residency categories — Non-Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien — onto one stamp. Instead of printing the two listed stamps, only one in reality was created and this required recataloguing.

Because of demand for hunting licences of big game species and limited population sizes, Special Licences or Authorizations through an application and draw system were introduced in 1964 for which all classes of hunters (Resident, Non-Resident [Canadian], and Non-Resident Alien) had to apply and submit the required fees. Up to 1980, these required stamps. From 1980 to 1985, small-size Resident Authorization Cards were issued but stamps remained in use for Resident Special Licences. From 1986 to 1997, larger stampless Special Licence Cards (and Authorization Cards from 1986 to 1995) were issued to Resident hunters but Special Licence stamps were still used for Non-Resident and Non-Resident Alien applicants. Such licences and authorizations allowed lottery winners to hunt specific big game and bird species in one or more designated Wildlife Management Units (WMUs) and in specific time periods.

Analysis of Special Hunting Licence and Authorization Draw Guides published by the Government of Alberta each year from 1980 to 1997 allowed creation of complete lists of the Special Licence Cards and Draw Cards that should exist. Both types of cards represented a new format introduced in 1980 for distributing Resident Special Licences and Authorizations for hunting permits by the existing draw system. We have now separated the Special Stampless Licences Cards from the van Dam (2009) lists and present them together with unlisted Authorization Cards in this revision (see Table 7 to Table 11).

Quota licence stamps and stampless cards were also issued on request to any Resident hunter if there was poor uptake for any specific type of Special Licence or Authorization draw. This occurred when there were an insufficient number of hunter applications for these types of licences or for Wildlife Management Units where a quota (e.g. a specific number of licences) had been allocated prior to the hunting season. These gaps were advertised in local media. It is believed that Resident Quota licences were issued each year with large stamps from 1987 to 1989 and even larger stamps from 1988 to 1997.

Wildlife Branch and Departmental Names

Over the 34-year period from 1964 to 1997, the Alberta Department and Wildlife Branch names changed periodically at the whim of successive governments. The issuing organizations for hunting stamps were called:

- 1964 to 1974: Department of Lands and Forests — Fish and Wildlife Division;
- 1975 to 1978/79: Department of Recreation, Parks and Wildlife — Fish and Wildlife Division;
- 1978/79 to 1985: Department of Energy and Natural Resources — Fish and Wildlife;
- 1986 to 1992: Department of Forestry, Lands and Wildlife — Fish and Wildlife Division;
- 1993 to 1995: Department of Environmental Protection — Fish and Wildlife Services; and
- 1996 to 1997: Department of Environmental Protection — Natural Resources Service.

Observations

A few summary observations on this listing are provided below:

- (a) The order of listing follows that suggested by the research of McTaggart-Cowan (1989) who examined data on the frequency of Resident licence purchases, by species.
- (b) For over 70% of the listed stamps, the exact wording, colours and fee values have been verified by viewing an original stamp or colour scan. Some licence stamps and stampless cards listed thus have not yet been seen by the authors. Hence, the exact wording may be different or, in rare cases, the stamp may not exist. Also, additional stamps may still exist that have not yet been seen. A case in point was just such a discovery in February of 2013 when another unlisted Alberta hunting stamp came to light. Table 4 identifies all stamps in this list that were not previously listed in van Dam (2009) as “unlisted.”
- (c) Catalogue numbers with the “AW” prefix replicate those in van Dam (2009) and are given in the second column from the left. The first column on the left constitutes our new catalogue number for 1288 stamps that we believe exist, sequentially organized with the prefix “AH”.
- (d) Catalogue numbers for Resource Development Stamps that use an “AWR” prefix in van Dam (2009) are listed here with an “ARD” prefix. Similarly, WISE Foundation stamps that use an “AEP” prefix in van Dam (2009) are listed here with an “AWF” prefix. All new prefixes better represent these stamps’ role. They also are consistent with a comprehensive new cataloguing protocol for all Canadian hunting, fishing and conservation stamps that is under development by the senior author.
- (e) Several suffixes are used with the new numbers introduced here: lower case “a, b, c...” etc. suffixes are used for listing significant errors or varieties of the main stamp and the capital “U” suffix is used to designate an unfinished stamp. In future, we will use capital “A” to “Z” suffixes to record any new stamps not now listed here.

- (f) We have not listed stamps that were created to be used only as “Accounting” copies by the Wildlife Branch over the years. The capital “AC” suffix is however recommended to identify such “Accounting Stamps”. They are generally plain white stamps with duplicate information and only used by the issuing Department.
- (g) The “Fee Value” cited for each stamp is the particular fee in dollars and cents printed on the face of the stamp for that licence, not including federal Goods and Services Tax. We have thus relisted the fee value to exclude GST on all stamps issued in 1996 and 1997. These had GST included in the van Dam (2009) catalogue listing and Alberta Big Game, Game Bird and Special Licence Guides. However, this tax was never included on the stamps themselves. So, we have done these recalculations solely for consistency. If the fee value is in brackets, it means that it is not stated on the stamp itself, with this data derived from provincial Big Game, Special Licences and Authorizations, and Game Bird Guides.
- (h) “Duplicate” stamps (later called “Replacement” stamps) exist for all years 1965-1997. For a few later years, the Department also printed “Youth Replacement” stamps. The regular Duplicate/Replacement stamps were used to show a fee was paid for replacing lost licences by any category of hunter.
- (i) “Archery” stamps from 1970-1977 (later called “Bowhunting Licence” stamps from 1978 to 1984 and “Bowhunting Permit” stamps from 1985 to 1997) exist from 1970 to 1997. These include no indication of residency class from 1970 to 1978; but they do include a clear indication of residency class from 1979 to 1997.
- (j) Overall, a lot of information is still missing. Where information is notably absent, we have simply used a question mark (?). Surprisingly, even the basic colours of a few groups of stamps remain unknown to us. This says for example that nobody has written down the colours of, for example, the 1986 Non-Resident (Canadian) stamps.

Alberta Hunting Stamps: 1964 to 1997

There is no ideal manner to organize any catalogue listing of the hunting stamps of Alberta. However, one source offers some guidance, that being an article by Dr. Ian McTaggart-Cowan (1989). This provides Alberta Wildlife Branch data on the top 23 Resident hunter licence types purchased during the period from 1964 to 1985. Table 1 shows a summary of the data from the 1989 article. The most commonly purchased stamps are listed first with decreasing frequency of licence purchases downward on the list. Rarer stamps would be for any species with annual sales listed below the “top 23” in Table 1, as identified by McTaggart-Cowan. With this guidance, the authors have relisted all Alberta stamps following that sequence as much as possible. McTaggart-Cowan noted that in 1985 (and this is still true) for even the most common stamps, there might be as few as 100 copies in collectors’ and dealers’ hands today. The less frequent stamps are exceedingly rare or even non-existent now. It is quite conceivable that many of the rare licence stamps never got into collectors’ hands. As Non-Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien hunters only comprised about 5% of all hunters active in Alberta over the 1964 to 1997 period, any such licences should be considered rare. McTaggart-Cowan noted in his article that the number of registered hunters each year in Alberta in the 1964 to 1985 period ranged from about a low of 106,000 in 1966 to a high of 164,000 in 1980. The four most common stamp/licences purchased overall were Bird Game, White-tailed Deer, Mule Deer and Moose. Not surprisingly, demand focused on the cheaper licences. Hunters then and now are as prudent with their money as anybody.

Many very rare licence stamps also include unusual combinations of species types or geography. Copies of some of these types of licences also may not have survived. Certainly, the Government of Alberta did not retain archival copies. Dr. Ian McTaggart-Cowan and Erling van Dam created a partial listing of these stamps in 1987 (van Dam 1987), to some degree based not only on stamps seen but on those stamps listed in Big Game and Game Bird Guides issued each year by the Alberta Wildlife Branch. However, not all stamps are actually described fully in those Guide booklets. So we have returned to as many of those original documents as possible to verify all information published in van Dam (2009). Some data have required making assumptions and a bit of detective work. The documents available to the authors are cited overall as the “Government of Alberta” source documents listed in the References section of this paper. Copies of a few of these relevant documents were not accessible unfortunately.

This sequence of what constitutes common to rare stamps could be re-ordered annually as there are significant fluctuations in annual sales by species, but we felt that was too complex to document. Additionally, data for all years is not necessarily uniform or complete. Data from 1986 to 1997 was not included at all in McTaggart-Cowan (1989), but some data has since been published in annual Alberta Big Game and Game Bird Guides. Total harvest data for 16 species is summarized for the 1986 to 1992 period in Table 2. Data derived from 27 types of Special Licences and Authorization Cards sold is also presented later in this paper (see Table 7 to Table 11). These tables provide some indicators for relative stamp rarity. For example, any licence type not listed in Table 2 should be considered rare.

Rare licences thus include:

- (a) Low-demand licences (not included in the McTaggart-Cowan “top 23”);
- (b) Licences restricted to only a small number of Wildlife Management Units or through lottery draws;
- (c) Experimental licences seen only in one or two years such as Sage Grouse or Cow Moose;
- (d) Licence stamps with spelling and printing errors or missing information such as fee value; and
- (e) All Non-Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien licence stamps.

Licence types not fitting the “top 23” McTaggart-Cowan sequence are added at the end of the more popular licences in our new listing here. These are in somewhat the same species order as the first 23 most popular licence types. An assumption was made that licence purchases for Non-Resident (Canadian) hunters (e.g. those resident in any jurisdiction in Canada except Alberta) and Non-Resident Alien hunters (those resident outside of Canada) followed the same pattern of common to uncommon licence purchases. However, Non-

Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien hunters were far more restricted than resident hunters in what licences they could purchase and at a higher cost. Needless to say, there are a lot of possible sources of error but, in the face of few other options, the order used in the presentation that follows is our best effort.

No “Special Licence” stamp sections are included here as attempted in van Dam (2009). Instead Special Licence stamps are grouped with the basic five categories of residency found in these stamps: (a) Resident, (b) Non-Resident (Canadian), (c) Non-Resident or Non-Resident Alien, (d) Non-Resident Alien, and (e) All Residency Classes. Resource Development Stamps (1973 to 1997) and WISE Foundation (1994 to 1997) are presented at the end of the 1964 to 1997 hunting stamp listing. Additional sections include listings of Resident and Non-Resident Special Licence and Authorization stamps and cards. The use of Special Quota Licence stamps and cards is also discussed. The listing of Special Licence Stampless Cards for 1986 to 1997 Alberta hunting licences is not complete or is absent in van Dam (2009). All Authorization Cards from 1980 to 1995 were omitted in van Dam (2009). A final short section is added to explain the categories of Wildlife Hunting Guides that affected licence use in Alberta.

To summarize, we present:

- Alberta Hunting stamps, year by year from 1964 to 1997 in five categories of residency as noted above;
- Resource Development stamps (1973 to 1997);
- WISE Foundation stamps (1994 to 1997);
- Resident and Non-Resident Special Licence Stamps and Cards (1964 to 1997);
- Resident Special Authorization Cards (1980 to 1997);
- Special Quota Licence Stamps and Cards 1984 to 1997; and
- A short “Guides Explained” section.

Finally in our compilation here, we present Annex 1. It constitutes an updated summary of the many paper licence documents used from 1964 to 1997 as known to the authors and/or previously published in Rubec (2011). No doubt other documents exist.

Editorial errors are entirely those of the senior author who led compilation of this document.

WISE Foundation Stamps: 1994 to 1997

Another special stamp was introduced in 1994 to generate funds for the WISE Foundation. It lasted through to 1997, with the purpose to support hunter education and safety. Table 6 summarizes these stamps.

Special Licence Stamps: 1964 to 1997

The first "Special" hunting stamp based on a draw was issued in Alberta in 1964 for Resident Trophy Antelope. All Special stamps validated payment of fees for licences awarded through such lottery draws. Many of these stamps do not include the word "Special." Identifying them requires careful examination of the annual licence guide booklets issued by the Government of Alberta. The Special stamps were used in various formats from 1964 to 1997. Table 7 summarizes the Special Licence stamps by name, residency class, and years of use. We think there are at least 311 such Special stamps but some are difficult to identify.

Special Stampless Licence Cards: 1986 to 1997

Starting in 1986 through to 1997, many Residents and Non-Residents were issued Special Licences in the form of several types of licence cards. A “Special Stampless Licence Card” was issued for all Residents Special Licences without any stamps used. We estimate that 240 different types of these Resident Stampless Cards were created from 1986 to 1997. However, Non-Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien hunters received different documents. For example, cards issued to Non-Resident Alien hunters (all through Outfitters) involved an “Allocation Card” provided to the Outfitters by the Wildlife Branch. One for a Non-Resident Alien hunting Antlered Mule Deer in 1991 has been seen and is otherwise similar to Resident Special Licence Cards of the same year. These Non-Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien Special Licence Allocation Cards acted in the same manner as Resident Stampless Licence Cards. We believe that at least 79 types of these Non-Resident (Canadian) and 73 Non-Resident Alien Allocation Cards were created from 1986 to 1997. But there is a twist. They were also issued with a Non-Resident or Non-Resident Alien stamp that had to be affixed to the hunter’s Wildlife Certificate. The Resident, Non-Resident (Canadian) and Non-Resident Alien cards were individualized to each hunter with a hunter's name, species type, WMU(s) permitted, allowable dates of use and fee paid.

Resident Stampless Licence Cards and Non-Resident/Non-Resident Alien Allocation Cards (with a separate related stamp) varied in size year-over-year ranging from 204x90 mm to 228x90 mm. Their height was usually 90 mm but it was only 85 mm in 1994. Each year's cards can be distinguished by the background design in pale colours. Most cards included one or more game tags. Table 8 summarizes the types of Special Licences issued each year from 1986 to 1997 for all categories of residency. Table 9 also provides data on the 409,195 Special Licences sold over the period of 1986 to 1997. Some are relatively common (such as Resident Antlerless Mule Deer with over 100,000 licences in the form of Stampless Licence Cards sold from 1986 to 1997). Others are very rare (such as Non-Resident/Non-Resident Alien Trophy Sheep Licence Allocation Cards sold from 1994 to 1997, with only a few such licences permitted per year).

"Resident Stampless Authorization Cards" were also issued from 1980 to 1995 for Authorization Draws. These cards were used for allocation of licences to specific Wildlife Management Units, in response to biological requirements, and to fit certain seasons (see next section). Government of Alberta (see References) annual guide booklets provide precise listings of which of these cards exist.

Authorization Draw Stamps and Cards: 1974 to 1995

In 1974, the first Authorization Draw was held for Antlerless (female) Elk. Successful applicants were issued an Authorization stamp that allowed them to hunt the Elk. In 1974, the holder of an Antlerless (female) Elk Authorization also was required to buy a regular (male) Elk Licence for $5.00 with one game tag between the two licences. The game tag could be used for either an Authorized female or regular male Elk kill. This pattern was repeated in 1975, also using a stamp. In 1976 and 1977, the Wildlife Branch issued only Special Elk Licences with a stamp specific to certain WMUs, but no Authorization stamps were used in those two years. In 1977, a third Antlerless licence for Mule Deer was added. Starting in 1976, it was no longer necessary to also buy the regular (male) Elk licence in order to enter the Antlerless (female) Elk Draw or the Antlerless (female) White-tailed Deer Draw. Each Authorization stamp had a $5.00 fee.

In 1978, the Wildlife Branch returned to Authorization Draws and stamps but expanded the initiative to Antlerless Elk, Antlerless Mule Deer and Antlerless White-tailed Deer. This was continued in 1979 with the same three Authorization stamps. The same fee was required to purchase a Male Deer or Male Elk licence in 1979, but a hunter did not have to purchase both. These Authorizations were restricted to certain Wildlife Management Units (WMUs). If you did not already have a male licence and tag, you could buy an Antlerless Mule Deer, Antlerless White-tailed Deer or Antlerless Elk licence and tag. A hunter could also acquire an Antlered (male) White-tailed Deer, Antlered Mule Deer, or Antlered Elk licence, good anywhere in the province. Regardless, between these two types of licences you could only kill one animal. Hence, only one tag was issued in total. Once you killed either a male or a female, you could not continue to hunt a second animal regardless of its sex.

Stampless Authorization Cards came in two sizes:

- (a) Small: From 1980 to 1985, these cards were 91x57 mm in size in 1980 and 1981 but slightly smaller (90x57 mm) from 1982 to 1985. The printing on these cards all appear to be identical except the added computer-generated information. All state "Big Game Authorization 19..." at the top. These cards are often found folded once and stapled into a Wildlife Certificate that also has a stamp on another page related to it (usually with different, more general wording); and

- (b) Large: From 1986 to 1995 the cards varied in size from 204x90 to 218x90 mm, but were only 218x85 mm in 1994. These are stand-alone documents that were generally too big to staple into a Wildlife Certificate, so are usually found unfolded.

Authorization applications were free up to 1984. A $3.00 non-refundable fee for the application card itself was introduced in 1985.

While small, computerized Resident Stampless Authorization Cards were issued from 1980 to 1985, stamps were still used for Special Licences. In 1986 to 1997, larger-sized stampless cards were issued for all Resident Special Licences, Authorizations and some of the Quota Licences. The Stampless Authorization Cards were used only from 1986 to 1995 as Authorization Draws were all converted into Special Licence Draws in 1996. This eliminated the use of Resident Authorization Cards.

Resident Authorization Stamps and Stampless Authorization Cards that were used from 1974 to 1995 are outlined in Table 10. Eight different Authorization Stamps were issued from 1974 to 1979, with none in 1976 and 1977. In addition, we believe that 104 distinct Stampless Authorization Cards were issued (including year types) from 1980 to 1995. A total of 53 different types of these cards were issued from 1980 to 1985 and 51 different types of the cards from 1986 to 1995. However, every card can be regarded as unique with different data specific to the hunter and game being hunted. A total of 89,983 Resident Stampless Authorization Cards were issued from 1986 to 1995 (sales data are listed in Table 11).

Special Quota Licence Stamps and Cards: 1984 to 1997

Special Quota licences were issued in WMUs that were under-subscribed in Special Licence or Authorization draws or to control depredation problems. They cropped up anywhere a gap arose in the filling of an allocation established for any particular WMU or species under a particular Special Licence or Authorization. Where a particular game species became a public nuisance, additional Quota Licences were offered. If these became available, they were advertised in local newspapers and radio broadcasts. They were available on a first come, first serve basis.

Two types of large format Quota stamps are known: (a) Large stamps that are 85x52 mm in size are known for 1984 to 1987 in the same style and colour of regular Resident stamps of that year; (b) A larger undated 103x72 mm stamp from a tear-off pad, with roulette perforations on all four sides, likely used from 1988 to 1997. Very few of the "a"-style stamps have been seen. Only three of the "b"-style stamps are known to the authors, with red control numbers from 000411 to 000480 and all from 1996. The 1996 "b"-style stamps are gummed on the back of light blue-green paper with black type on the front face. A Resident Stampless Quota Authorization Card is also known for 1996.

The "a"-style stamps are listed in the Alberta Big Game Guides for 1984 to 1986 but, oddly, not 1987 despite a stamp being known for that year. A fee of $10.00 in 1984, but rising to $11.00 in 1987 and $12.00 in 1996, was required to purchase these Quota licences. As they were only used to fill-in allocations of Resident Special Licences, they are described throughout this document as “Special” Quota Licences. We believe these stamps and documents are very rare.

Quota Licences Seen: Large (85x52 mm) Stamp in 1984 to 1987; Larger (103x72 mm) Stamp or Stampless Card in 1996):

1984: van Dam AW597; stamp, seen used for Antlerless White-tailed Deer. Fee $10.00.
1984: van Dam AW597; stamp, seen used for Male or Female White-tailed Deer. Fee $10.00.
1984: van Dam AW597; stamp, seen used for Antlerless Mule Deer. Fee $10.00.
1985: van Dam AW641; stamp, seen used for Male or Female White-tailed Deer. Fee $10.00.
1986: van Dam AW692, stamp, not seen used. Fee $10.00.
1987: van Dam AW744A; stamp, seen used for Non-Trophy Antelope. Fee $11.00.
1996: Blue-green roulette larger stamp, hand-dated “96”, seen used for Antlerless Elk. Fee $12.00.
1996: Special Quota Licence stampless card; seen used for Antlerless White-tailed Deer. This card is not listed in the 1996 Alberta Special Licences Guide. Fee $12.00.

Guides Explained

Four classes of Hunting Guides are relevant to the Alberta hunting licencing system. These are Class A, B, C and S and are characterized as follows:

- Class A Guide: This was an Alberta Resident who could guide not more than two hunters at a time in any part of Alberta.
- Class B Guide: Like a Class A Guide, but with a few WMU exceptions.
- Class C Guide: This was an Alberta Resident who could guide any number of NR or NRA hunters (limited to two NRA hunters in 1996) to hunt timber wolf and species named on their licences on land owned by the Class C Guide; or An Alberta Resident who could guide two NR hunters to hunt timber wolf and the species named on their licence anywhere in Alberta. They could not charge a fee for these guiding services. Use of a Class C guide was a minimum requirement for successful issuance of any licence to an NR/NRA hunter. “Class C Guiding” replaced the term for a “Guide Authorization” in 1985. An Alberta Resident could apply for “Guide Authorization” status for a $25.00 fee up to 1984. In 1985, they applied for status as a “Class C Guide.”
- Class S Guide: These are licenced commercial outfitters who held Wildlife Branch allocations for Trophy Sheep and other Special licences. They held an “Outfitter-Guide Permit” and provided outfitting and guiding services for a fee. They issued “Allocation Cards” to NR/NRA hunters who contracted their services. This usually involved a hunting package for NR and NRA hunters including licences, accommodation, meals and transportation.

Annex 1: Alberta Wildlife Hunting Licence Documents

Introduction

Annex 1 provides the title and description of Alberta Wildlife Certificates and other Alberta hunting licence documents used in the 1964 to 1997 period. This is based on information obtained from our own collections and our contributors. However, while we are aware that this listing is likely far from complete, it does update the information provided in Rubec (2011).

A wide range of Alberta hunting licence documents exist. Many styles and formats were used over the 34 years of this initiative. Each year, the majority of the Alberta stamps were placed on a Wildlife Certificate. A few were used on separate stand-alone documents. Before 1973, a fee was charged for the Wildlife Certificate that held the stamps, with the fee being payable to either the Wildlife Fund or the Wildlife Damage Fund. Commencing in 1973, an additional Alberta Resource Development Stamp was placed or printed on a page inside the Wildlife Certificate Booklet with a new format as well. Resource Development stamps were imperforate, perforated or roulette stamps or preprinted impressions in the booklet. For each impression/stamp, a hunter had to pay a fee together with the fee for the booklet itself. Then, a hunter had to purchase the stamps that identified the game species that were to be hunted. Youth versions of these books also exist from 1992 to 1997. From 1980, the fees from the Wildlife Certificates and Resource Development Stamps were deposited to the Fish and Wildlife Trust Fund. From 1994 to 1997 an additional imperforate stamp was created to support the WISE Foundation. It also was a preprinted impression in the Adult and Youth Wildlife Certificate booklets of those years.

The lists below summarize many of the known documents used to affix hunting stamps in Alberta. These come in front or front and rear usage sheets, multi-page booklets, single-stamp cards, and other documents, all used to administer the issuing of hunting licences in Alberta. Additional unrecorded documents more than likely exist. From 1987 to 1997, the format of some low demand Resident licences was changed to a computer-generated card that did not require the use of stamps. These cards foretold the introduction of a fully automated system for issuing licences in 1998. At that time, the use of Alberta hunting stamps was abandoned.

The Government of Alberta also used several styles of Wildlife Certificates and Licence documents, as given below for years observed. There are six basic types known to the authors but more may exist:

Small Paper Licences

- 1964: Non-Resident (Canadian) Spring Bear Licence. $25.00 fee. No stamp. 200x135 mm. Black type on white paper with Alberta crest and wavy lines in background.

Small Cards

- 1964 (Form 51, roulette one side), 1965 (Form WA5, roulette one side) and 1966 (year printed on form, roulette two sides): 11.3x9.8 cm, Wildlife Licence Card used for Resident and Special Resident Antelope Licences, Non-Trophy Sheep Licences, and Sage Grouse Licences: white, printed both sides, with hunting zones map on back.
- 1965 to 1968: Wildlife Certificate. Used for Resident Spring Bear and Antelope Licences. Blue.
- 1974: Non-Trophy Mountain Sheep Licence.
- 1982 to 1984: 89x57 mm Big Game Authorization card to accompany a valid General Licence and game seal for specific species. Stapled inside Wildlife Certificate booklets. Blank on reverse side.
- 1982 to 1984: Similar but Big Game Hunting Allocation card, issued to Hunting Guides.
- 1972 to 1974: Resident Antelope Licence Application. Also Resident S-416 and S-418 Elk Licence Application and Resident Wainwright Deer Licence Application. White.
- 1977 to 1985: Larger Authorization Cards for Special Licences. White, two printed sides. Several styles. About 200x95 mm.

Two-sided Sheets

- 1964: Two-sided form, black control no. on front, with eight Resident licence boxes on the front and six Non-Resident licence boxes on the back, size 18.4x9.5 cm.
- 1965 to 1966: Two-sided form, red control no. on front, with six Resident licence boxes on the front and four Non-Resident boxes on the back, size 17.8x9.4 cm.
- 1967: Two-sided form, red control no. on front, with eight Resident licence boxes on the front and six Non-Resident licence boxes on the back, size 21.7x9.4 cm.
- 1968 to 1969: Two-sided form, red control no. on front, with ten Resident licence boxes on the front and eight Non-Resident licence boxes on the back, size measures 25.6x9.4 cm.
- 1971: Two-sided form, red control no. on front, with one designated box designated for Resident M.E.D. and nine other undifferentiated (Resident versus Non-Resident) boxes on the front but no boxes on the back (the back has instructions and a large blank space at the bottom), size 25.6x9.4 cm.

Two-sided Forms

- 1982 to 1984: Special Licence Application and Authorization Form, measures 22.0x9.5 cm in size, no control number. Two grey-toned boxes at right side for stamp (if successful in draw) and geographic (such as specific Wildlife Management Units where licence is valid) or date conditions. Spaces for name, address, signature, date and Wildlife Certificate number at left. No fee. Reverse side has instructions. Printed on heavy white paper. Used for special licence draws.

- 1985: Special Licence Application Form: As above, except has serial number in grey-toned box at top left corner and includes “Application/Form Fee: $3.00/(Non-Refundable)” in three lines below serial number. Reverse side has instructions. Printed on heavy white paper. Used for special licence draws.
- 1987 to 1992: Special Licence form with no stamps, with “Alberta” wordmark in red or blue in background and computer-imprinted data on dates of validity, hunter identification, species, WMU limitations and fee paid. With notched dating on sides and game tags.
